

Events Participation Rules

1. Registration and Participation

- Participation in the event requires prior registration.
- Each participant is obliged to provide accurate and truthful information during registration.
- The Organizer reserves the right to refuse participation in the event in case of violation of these rules.

2. General Rules

- Participants are expected to maintain standards of personal conduct and show respect towards others.
- Offensive, discriminatory, harassing, or otherwise disruptive behavior that undermines the comfort of other participants is strictly prohibited.
- Participants agree to comply with the instructions of the Organizer and event staff.

3. Safety and Data Protection

- Participants are responsible for the safety of their personal belongings.
- Unauthorized recording of speeches, presentations, or panels is prohibited unless prior consent has been granted by the Organizer.
- By attending, participants consent to the use of their image in event materials (photo/video), unless they object prior to the event.

4. Copyright and Event Materials

- Presentations, materials, and content shared during the event are protected by copyright law.
- Participants may use the materials solely for personal purposes and are not allowed to distribute them without the consent of the authors or the Organizer.

5. Online Rules (for hybrid or online events)

- Sharing login credentials to the event platform with third parties is prohibited.
- The Organizer may monitor participants' online activity to ensure the security of the broadcast.

6. Consequences of Violating the Rules

- The Organizer reserves the right to remove a participant from the event (onsite or online) in the event of non-compliance with these rules.
- In serious cases, the Organizer may take appropriate legal action.

7. Final Provisions

- These rules apply to all participants of the event.
- Registration and participation in the event constitute acceptance of these rules.
